

Celebrate the Birthday of Lee County!

July 2, 2007, Depot Park, 5:00-9:30 P.M.

Watch the Centennial banners waving—and wave back! Salute the founding families and their descendants. Review the classic cars, antique tractor, wheat thresher, 1925 American La France Fire Truck (“Old Betsy”) Receive a copy of the reprinted Lee County Centennial calendar of events book (if you missed it earlier). Purchase Centennial commemoratives. Visit with our “host couple,” Hal and Esther Siler. Tour the Railroad House.

Join members of the Broadway Woman’s Club in wearing period dress. Grow a beard for the Robert E. Lee Look-Alike Contest. Cheer on or perform in the competing singing groups.

Test your dancing to different kinds of music:

5:00—The HighCountry Men

6:30—Gregg Gelb and the Heart of Carolina Jazz Orchestra

7:30—Marvin Gaster and Friends

8:30—The Guy Unger Phaxtion

In case of rain, the musical performances will move to Temple Theatre.

Enjoy birthday cake and ice cream served by the Sanford Woman’s Club. (Plenty of other food and drink will be available for purchase.)
